PRESS RELEASE

ANOTHER RUTHLESS MURDER OF AN AHMADI MUSLIM IN PESHAWAR PAKISTAN

Today, another heartbreaking murder of an Ahmadi Muslim took place in Peshawar, Pakistan. Dr. Naeem-ud-dine Khattak (PhD), a professor at Superior Science College Peshawar, was on his way back home when some unknown men on a motorcycle opened fire at his car. He was shot multiple times, received 5 bullets and died there on the spot. This is the third targeted murder of an Ahmadi within weeks in Peshwar Pakistan.

Hate campaigns and abusive gatherings organized by Khatam-e-Nubuwwat and their accomplices have become a norm in Pakistan. It is all happening under the wide-open eyes of the Government officials and law enforcing agencies and yet there is not the slightest move on the part of the authorities to protect Ahmadis and safeguard their freedom of Religion and fundamental human Rights.

We keep the world community informed in the hope that it will take a stern view of these horrific acts of barbarism in Pakistan and assure the safety and security of law abiding and peace-loving members of the Ahmadiyya Community in Pakistan.
