

PRESS RELEASE

AHMADI MUSLIMS BARRED BY LAW FROM CELEBRATING EID-UL-ADHA IN PAKISTAN

Pakistani authorities have barred Ahmadi Muslims in Pakistan from gathering for Eid-ul-Adha as Muslims worldwide commemorate the Islamic festival.

In a grievous violation of basic human rights and religious freedom, circulars by the Lahore Bar Association and the Gojra Bar Association instruct local police forces to take “pre-emptive and preventive” measures to ensure Ahmadi Muslims neither participate in Qurbani (animal sacrifice ritual carried out by Muslims the world over on the occasion of Eid) nor congregate for prayer on this special day for the Islamic world.

The Lahore Bar Association says such “violations” would necessitate taking “strict, iron-handed and preventative” measures.

State institutions like these were once thought of as the unbiased and open-minded final resort for the oppressed and standard bearers of justice, working for the people regardless of caste, race or religious belief.

Other messages have been circulated across the country urging people to report Ahmadi Muslims caught carrying out animal sacrifice to the police.

Eid celebrations and animal sacrifice on this occasion is a long-standing tradition of Muslims the world over since the inception of Islam. Ahmadi Muslims have always been part of this tradition.

This is the latest in a long series of restrictions and oppression by state authorities in Pakistan against the marginalised and persecuted Ahmadi Muslim Community.

The plight of Ahmadi Muslims has caught global attention. In recent days U.S. congressman Michael McCaul tweeted:

“We continue to be alarmed by the uptick in violence against Ahmadi Muslims in Pakistan. An Ahmadi man was reportedly arrested for having a Muslim name, & his lawyers were beaten in open court. Such brazen persecution must cease. Ahmadi prisoners of conscience should be released.”

The United Nations and global human rights groups have long expressed serious concern over the poor treatment of Ahmadis in Pakistan which continues unabated.

In view of such hate-filled propaganda, there is a likelihood that Ahmadis would be deprived of fulfilling this fundamental practice associated with this event and many would have to face criminal prosecution just because of practicing their faith.

The Eid ul Azha Festival is going to be celebrated in Pakistan in the end of June 2023 and, as the situation of Ahmadis living in Pakistan is precarious and Mullahs as well as police are trying to persecute them only because of performing their religious rituals, hence, once again we plead to the International Community to take urgent action to urge the Government of Pakistan to safeguard the civil and religious freedoms of Ahmadis and provide them with the safety and security in order to observe and practise their faith.

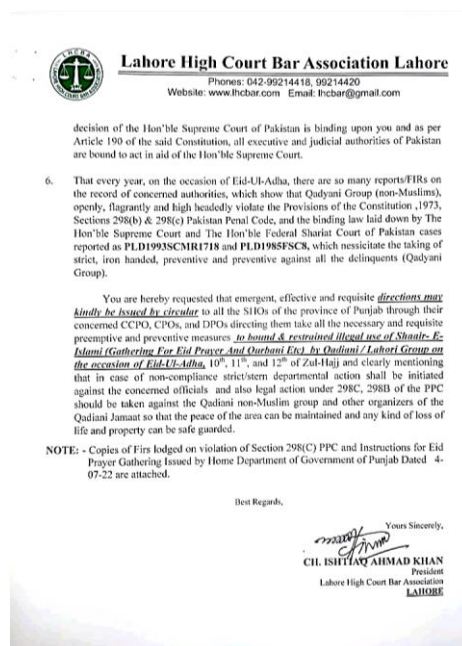

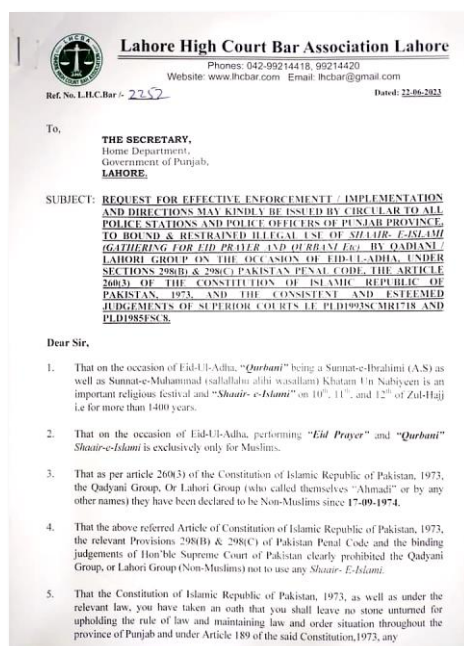

On July 13, 2021, UN human rights experts expressed their deep concern over the lack of attention to the serious human rights violations perpetrated against the Ahmadiyya community around the world and called on the international community to step up efforts in bringing an end to the ongoing persecution of Ahmadis.

We once again urge the international community to pressure the Government of Pakistan to honor its responsibility to provide protection to all its citizens, ensure freedom of religious practice to Ahmadis, and bring perpetrators of such vicious attacks to justice. The Government of Pakistan must also bring its laws and practices in conformity with international standards as ordained by Article 2, 18 and the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR) Article 25, 26.

Prohibition of Sacrifice from the Ahmadiyya Community.

It is written that instructions have been received from the Home Department and Deputy Commissioner Hafizabad that members of the Ahmadiyya community sacrifice animals on the occasion of Eid al-Adha, which can raise objections among Muslims. This could lead to religious tensions. Last year, there was a religious conflict in the Karyala area police station, Kujukhi, and the Sadr Hafizabad police station, Prem Kot, regarding this matter.

Therefore, you are strongly instructed to meet the people of the Ahmadiyya community at your respective circle and police station levels and obtain written statements from them confirming that they will not perform sacrificial rituals in accordance with the Constitution of Pakistan, so that any unpleasant incidents can be prevented. After obtaining the written statements, send a copy to the Security Branch within two days.

🔴🔴🔴🔴 Awareness to the evil of Qadianiat 🔴🔴🔴🔴
Assalam o Allaikum Wa Rehmatullahi Wa Barakatuhu

“All dignified Muslims while taking some time out should read this.”

And then share this with others that Qadianis Mirzais who call themselves Ahmadis are a non-Muslim minority according to the Law and the Constitution of Pakistan. According to the Shariah, they are not ordinary Disbelievers they are the worst disbelievers.

Therefore, they cannot call themselves as Muslims, neither do our law permits them to carry out any religious activities similar to that of the Muslims. The festival of Eid ul Adha is near, they also sacrifice animals on this day like the Muslims, and present themselves as if they are Muslims.

It is our responsibility on being a dignified Muslim that whenever a Qadiani carries out an Islamic ritual we shall inform the law and we shall make these evils follow the law.

All Muslims should keep an eye in their area that if any Qadiani the apostate offers the sacrifice or brings an animal for the sacrifice so the dignified Muslims should gather and go to their respective Police Station to submit a complaint against him so that the law can carry out its responsibility. Stay firm, remain steadfast Allah's Help will be with you.

In sha Allah.
